

B&T semi-automatic carbine APC9 K PRO G, Cal. 9x19mm

B&T semi-automatic carbine APC9 K PRO G, Cal. 9x19mm

The APC9 K PRO G is the next evolution of the proven APC Family. With the ambidextrous non-reciprocating charging handle and its other advanced features, is the APC K PRO G is the perfect choice for Police Duty and therefore also an attractive weapon for sport shooting.

The G-version of the APC9 K PRO uses Glock 9 mm double-column magazines. So one can easily interchange magazines with a Glock sidearm.

The K is the compact version and therefore the perfect choice whenever a sub-compact 9 mm carbine is needed as a personal defence weapon within military applications or for Police duty, especially for undercover or observation operations.
